DATE OF CONTENT DATE OF CONTENT DATE OF CONTENT DATE OBTAINED 25X1C DATE OF CONTENT DATE OBTAINED 25X1C DATE PREPARED 10 August 1953 REMARKS 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS 25X1X 1. During the month of June and up to 10 July 1953, five planes, apparently II-12, with a vertical, brown stripe on the rudder assembly were parked at Neubrandenburg-Trollenhagen atrifield, At 8:30 p.m. on 7 July, reliroad cars loaded with large crates and 4 tank cars were shunted onto the spur track to the field, On 8,9 and 10 July, one or two Mid-15s with auxiliary fivel tanks took off from the field and departed. I In early June, German workers were grading the area east of the runway. This work was stopped after 17 June. 2. On 4 July, no changes were observed in the radio instal lations at the field, 2 On 6 July, six motor vehicles were parked at the field and truck entered the field.	~		CLASSIFICATION	SECRET/		25X1A
EVALUATION 25X1X PLACE OBTAINED 25X1C EVALUATION 25X1X PLACE OBTAINED 25X1C CATE OF CONTENT. CATE OBTAINED 25X1C EFFERENCES 25X1C EFFERENCES 25X1C ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS 1. During the month of June and up to 10 July 1953, five planes, apparently II-12, with a vertical brown stripe on the rudder assembly were parked at Neubrendenburg-Trollenbagen airfield. At 8:30 p.m. on 7 July, railroad cars loaded with large crates and 4 tank cars were shunted onto the spur track to the field, 0n 3,9 and 10 July, one or two MiG-15s with auxiliary fuel tanks took off from the field and departed. I nearly June, German workers were grading the area east of the runway. This work was stopped after 17 June. 2. On 4 July, no changes were observed in the radio instal lations at the field. 2 On 6 July, six motor vehicles were parked at the field and truck entered the field since mid-May 1953. The assumption that the planes are II-12s is believed to be correct as another source reported the planes are II-12s is believed to be correct as another source reported the planes are II-12s is believed to be correct as another source reported the planes to have been fitted with two engines and a nose wheel. It has not been determined, however, to which unit they belong. The Mid-15s probably came from Puebnitz air field where the fighter.	COUNTRY	ikst Ger	many	SECURITY INFOR	MATION _REPORT NO		The property of the second second
DATE OF CONTENT. DATE OBTAINED 25X1C 25X1C 25X1C 25X1C 25X1C 25X1C 25X1X 1. During the month of June and up to 10 July 1953, five planes, apparently II-12, with a vertical, brown stripe on the rudder assembly were parked at Neubrandenburg-Trollenhagen airfield, At 8:30 p.m. on 7 July, railroad cars loaded with large crates and 4 tank cars were shunted onto the spur track to the field. On 8,9 and 10 July, one or two MiG-15s with auxiliary fuel tanks took off from the field and departed. 1 In early June, German workers were grading the area east of the runway. This work was stopped after 17 June. 2. On 4 July, no changes were observed in the radio instal lations at the field. 2 On 6 July, six motor vehicles were parked at the field and truck entered the fields. (1A 1. Comment. The five planes which source believed to have been II-12s have been stationed at the field since mid-May 1953. The assumption that the planes are II-12s is believed to be correct as another source reported the planes to have been fitted with two engines and a nose wheel. It has not been determined, however, to which unit they belong. 25X10	TOPIC		· ·			anda usukan ketalangaan madu pence antah hanci nelakatan ketalangan da basa salah sa	and have accomplished and the old constraints we consider a few modes.
DATE OF CONTENT. DATE OBTAINED 25X1C 25X1C 25X1C 25X1C 25X1C 25X1X 1. During the month of June and up to 10 July 1953, five planes, apparently II-12, with a vertical, brown stripe on the rudder assembly were parked at Neubrandenburg-Trollenhagen airfield, At 8:30 p.m. on 7 July, railroad cers loaded with large crates and 4 tank cars were shunted onto the spur track to the field, On 8,9 and 10 July, one or two MiG-15s with auxiliary fivel tanks took off from the field and departed. 1 In early June, German workers were grading the area east of the runway. This work was stopped after 17 June. 2. On 4 July, no changes were observed in the radio instal lations at the field. 2 On 6 July, six motor vehicles were parked at the field and truck entered the field. (1C (1A 1. Comment. The five planes which source believed to have been II-12s have been stationed at the field since mid-Mey 1953. The assumption that the planes are II-12s is believed to be correct as another source reported the planes to have been fitted with two engines and a nose wheel. It has not been determined, however, to which unit they belong. (1A 1. The MiG-15s probably came from Puetnitz airfield where the fighter.	n ver versioner, ook isk nationalist Materi stratigaren	ydraeco natoradajek nazoudawanopanjemen na	i de la companie de la composition de la companie d	н ж Алектический истигальный этом места пасти и для детигаты истигаты.	TOP (ON THE RESIDENCE THE STATE OF COLUMN SHOUGHES, IN A SHEAD HOMEOUTH	rendere (1840) on versandele von manufaction place av our set of the control of t	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
DATE OBTAINED	EVALUATIO	N. L	25X1X	PLACE OBTAINED	·	25X1C
EFERENCES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) EMARKS 25X1X 1. During the month of June and up to 10 July 1953, five planes, apparently II-12, with a vertical brown stripe on the rudder assembly were parked at Neubrandenburg-Trollenhagen airfield, At 3:30 p.m. on 7 July, reilroad cars loaded with large crates and 4 tank cars were shunted onto the spur track to the field. On 8,9 and 10 July, one or two MiG-15s with auxiliary fiel tanks took off from the field and departed. 1 In early June, German workers were grading the area east of the runway. This work was stopped after 17 June. 2. On 4 July, no changes were observed in the radio instal lations at the field. 2 On 6 July, six motor vehicles were parked at the field and truck 1. Comment. The five planes which source believed to have been II-12s have been stationed at the field since mid-May 1953. The assumption that the planes are II-12s is believed to be correct as another source reported the planes to have been fitted with two engines and a nose wheel. It has not been determined, however, to which unit they belong. 25X	ATE OF (CONTENT.		* ACMATY TRANS.	·		•
25X1C 25X1X 1. During the month of June and up to 10 July 1953, five planes, apparently II-12, with a vertical brown stripe on the rudder assembly were parked at Neubrandenburg-Trollenhagen airfield, At 3:30 p.m., on 7 July, reilroad cars loaded with large crates and 4 tank cars were shunted onto the spur track to the field. On 3,9 and 10 July, one or two MiG-15s with auxiliary fivel tanks took off from the field and departed. I In early June, German workers were grading the area east of the runway. This work was stopped after 17 June. 2. On 4 July, no changes were observed in the radio instal lations at the field. 2 On 6 July, six motor vehicles were parked at the field and truck (1A 1. Comment. The five planes which source believed to have been II-12s have been stationed at the field since mid-May 1953. The assumption that the planes are II-12s is believed to be correct as another source reported the planes are II-12s is believed to be correct as another source reported the planes are II-12s is believed to be correct as another source reported the planes to have been fitted with two engines and a nose wheel. It has not been determined, however, to which unit they belong. 25X	ATE OBT	AINED		DATE PREPAR!	ED 10 Augu	st 1953
25X1X 1. During the month of June and up to 10 July 1953, five planes, apparently II12, with a vertical_brown stripe on the rudder assembly were parked at Neubrandenburg-Trollenhagen airfield. At 3:30 p.m. on 7 July, railroad cars loaded with large crates and 4 tank cars were shunted onto the spur track to the field. On 3:9 and 10 July, one or two MiG-15s with auxiliary fuel tanks took off from the field and departed. In early June, German workers were grading the area east of the runway. This work was stopped after 17 June. 2. On 4 July, no changes were observed in the radio instal lations at the field. 2 On 6 July, six motor vehicles were parked at the field and truck entered the field. (1A 1. Comment. The five planes which source believed to have been II-12s have been stationed at the field since mid-May 1953. The assumption that the planes are II-12s is believed to be correct as another source reported the planes to have been fitted with two engines and a nose wheel. It has not been determined, however, to which unit they belong. [1A In MiG-15s probably came from Puebnitz airfield where the fighter.]	REFERENC	ES	25X1C				BARTON AND COLOR AND COLOR FOR TO BE STOLLTON
25X1X 1. During the month of June and up to 10 July 1953, five planes, apparently II-12, with a vertical, brown stripe on the rudder assembly were parked at Neubrandenburg-Trollenhagen airfield. At 8:30 p.m. on 7 July, rellroad cers loaded with large crates and 4 tank cars were shunted onto the spur track to the field. On 8,9 and 10 July, one or two MiG-15s with auxiliary fuel tanks took off from the field and departed. I In early June, German workers were grading the area east of the runway. This work was stopped after 17 June. 2. On 4 July, no changes were observed in the radio instal lations at the field. 2 On 6 July, six motor vehicles were parked at the field and truck entered the field. (1C	'		NCLOSURES (NO.	& TYPF)
1. During the month of June and up to 10 July 1953, five planes, apparently II-12, with a vertical brown stripe on the rudder assembly were parked at Neubrandenburg-Trollenhagen airfield. At 3:30 p.m. on 7 July, reilroad cars loaded with large crates and 4 tank cars were shunted onto the spur track to the field. On 3,9 and 10 July, one or two MiG-15s with auxiliary fuel tanks took off from the field and departed. I In early June, German workers were grading the area east of the runway. This work was stopped after 17 June. 2. On 4 July, no changes were observed in the radio instal lations at the field. 2 On 6 July, six motor vehicles were parked at the field and truck entered the field since mid-May 1953. The assumption that the planes are II-12s is believed to be correct as another source reported the planes to have been fitted with two engines and a nose wheel. It has not been determined, however, to which unit they belong. 25X						a manter rastita additira dell'arcolorista dell'arcolorista parti Arri della pro stativi di la Cita dalla	deletermentelikke estelje vareter vidermeletelsend
1. During the month of June and up to 10 July 1953, five planes, apparently II-12, with a vertical, brown stripe on the rudder assembly were parked at Neubrandenburg-Trollenhagen airfield. At 8:30 p.m. on 7 July, railroad cars loaded with large crates and 4 tank cars were shunted onto the spur track to the field. On 8,9 and 10 July, one or two MiG-15s with auxiliary fuel tanks took off from the field and departed. I In early June, German workers were grading the area east of the runway. This work was stopped after 17 June. 2. On 4 July, no changes were observed in the radio instal lations at the field. 2 On 6 July, six motor vehicles were parked at the field and truck entered the field. 1. Comment. The five planes which source believed to have been II-12s have been stationed at the field since mid-May 1953. The assumption that the planes are II-12s is believed to be correct as another source reported the planes to have been fitted with two engines and a nose wheel. It has not been determined, however, to which unit they belong. 25X	EMARNS.	Materials , in Europe de american mentals in the American and American resource		es e emine descripci i i me emis reconstruci o. Es e conse rvamente ese ese ese ese ese ese ese ese ese e	Mite vide Michaelle Amerikaan maanista ka arangii ka	од 4 мостиму (т. и) изменятельный на наднезамент за мости занадинасца, удазгун	Neille de
1. During the month of June and up to 10 July 1953, five planes, apparently II-12, with a vertical, brown stripe on the rudder assembly were parked at Neubrandenburg-Trollenhagen airfield. At 8:30 p.m. on 7 July, railroad cars loaded with large crates and 4 tank cars were shunted onto the spur track to the field. On 8,9 and 10 July, one or two MiG-15s with auxiliary fuel tanks took off from the field and departed. In early June, German workers were grading the area east of the runway. This work was stopped after 17 June. 2. On 4 July, no changes were observed in the radio instal lations at the field. 2 On 6 July, six motor vehicles were parked at the field and truck entered the field. 1. Comment. The five planes which source believed to have been II-12s have been stationed at the field since mid-May 1953. The assumption that the planes are II-12s is believed to be correct as another source reported the planes to have been fitted with two engines and a nose wheel. It has not been determined, however, to which unit they belong. 25X	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	ANN CET MINISTERN PORTY OFFICE AN EXPRESSABILITY OF STREET	обласній тамайні се поченівання навіно одрача прадаван нів до надав	PARAMETER AND	atting of the special property	inger de des companyes processes de la processa de la companye de	стиницияння і под возможном паную уста
1. During the month of June and up to 10 July 1953, five planes, apparently II-12, with a vertical, brown stripe on the rudder assembly were parked at Neubrandenburg-Trollenhagen airfield. At 8:30 p.m. on 7 July, railroad cars loaded with large crates and 4 tank cars were shunted onto the spur track to the field. On 8,9 and 10 July, one or two MiG-15s with auxiliary fuel tanks took off from the field and departed. In early June, German workers were grading the area east of the runway. This work was stopped after 17 June. 2. On 4 July, no changes were observed in the radio instal lations at the field. 2 On 6 July, six motor vehicles were parked at the field and truck entered the field. 1. Comment. The five planes which source believed to have been II-12s have been stationed at the field since mid-May 1953. The assumption that the planes are II-12s is believed to be correct as another source reported the planes to have been fitted with two engines and a nose wheel. It has not been determined, however, to which unit they belong. 25X	- Committee value de la la committee de la com	promises - and consideration of the authorities and assessment ass	MERCHANISH SHARES SHARESTON SHARESTON SHAREST PROPERTY CONTRACTOR	MacRith obtained to 1973 in 1975 in 1976 in 1986 in 1975 in 1976 in 1975 in 1976 in 1975 in 1976 in 1975 in 1976 in 19	K. A.C. LANGE AND AND AND ENGINEERING MACHINERY BY LEGISLATION AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AN	each anns an ann an ann an an an an an an an an a	Uninervicing transforms and an analysis of the state of t
1. During the month of June and up to 10 July 1953, five planes, apparently I1-12, with a vertical, brown stripe on the rudder assembly were parked at Neubrandenburg-Trollenhagen airfield. At 8:30 p.m. on 7 July, railroad cars loaded with large crates and 4 tank cars were shunted onto the spur track to the field. On 8,9 and 10 July, one or two MiG-15s with auxiliary fuel tanks took off from the field and departed. I In early June, German workers were grading the area east of the runway. This work was stopped after 17 June. 2. On 4 July, no changes were observed in the radio instal lations at the field. 2 On 6 July, six motor vehicles were parked at the field and truck entered the field. (1C	er romandische genomenteren i sammengen	Market - 1994, ang a mga 1900 kilang kanalang at makan kapan ang ka	Michigalista officere una construction of the	emper tradiciates / platem - a management den entre de la companya con accidentement deseccanica deseccanica d	PTERMODATE ANTENDE : ANTENDAMENTAL ANTENDAMENTA	er (militare) no departura projekt (composition), è dipis sul au contragent o status	kan Maran kan maka kan maka kan kan kan kan kan kan kan kan kan
1. During the month of June and up to 10 July 1953, five planes, apparently I1-12, with a vertical, brown stripe on the rudder assembly were parked at Neubrandenburg-Trollenhagen airfield. At 8:30 p.m. on 7 July, railroad cars loaded with large crates and 4 tank cars were shunted onto the spur track to the field. On 8,9 and 10 July, one or two MiG-15s with auxiliary fuel tanks took off from the field and departed. I In early June, German workers were grading the area east of the runway. This work was stopped after 17 June. 2. On 4 July, no changes were observed in the radio instal lations at the field. 2 On 6 July, six motor vehicles were parked at the field and truck entered the field. (1C			-	·	25X1X
11-12, with a vertical, brown stripe on the rudder assembly were parked at Neubrandenburg-Trollenhagen airfield. At 8:30 p.m. on 7 July, railroad cars loaded with large crates and 4 tank cars were shunted onto the spur track to the field. On 8,9 and 10 July, one or two MiG-15s with auxiliary fuel tanks took off from the field and departed. I In early June, German workers were grading the area east of the runway. This work was stopped after 17 June. 2. On 4 July, no changes were observed in the radio instal lations at the field. 2 On 6 July, six motor vehicles were parked at the field and truck entered the field. (1A 1. Comment. The five planes which source believed to have been I1-12s have been stationed at the field since mid-May 1953. The assumption that the planes are I1-12s is believed to be correct as another source reported the planes to have been fitted with two engines and a nose wheel. It has not been determined, however, to which unit they belong. (1A 1. The MiG-15s probably came from Puetnitz airfield where the fighter			· .	 	20/(1/( field. 2 On 6 July, six motor vehicles were parked at the field and truck entered the field. (1A 1. Comment. The five planes which source believed to have been II-12s have been stationed at the field since mid-May 1953. The assumption that the planes are II-12s is believed to be correct as another source reported the planes to have been fitted with two engines and a nose wheel. It has not been determined, however, to which unit they belong. The MiG-15s probably came from Puetnitz airfield where the fighter							1
heve been stationed at the field since mid-May 1953. The assumption that the planes are II-12s is believed to be correct as another source reported the planes to have been fitted with two engines and a nose wheel. It has not been determined, however, to which unit they belong. 25X	1,	at Neubra cars load track to fuel tank workers v	ith a vertical, bandenburg—Trolle led with large c the field. On 8 as took off from were grading the	prown stripe on the recently at a carried. At a carried and 4 tank carried and 10 July, one of the field and depart	udder assembl 3:30 p.m. on s were shunte or two MiG-15 ted. 1 In ea	y were parked 7 July, railroad d onto the spur s with auxiliary cly June. Germon not been determined, however, to which unit they belong. 25X (1A	2.	at Neubra cars load track to fuel tank workers wafter 17	ith a vertical, bundenburg-Trolle ded with large c the field. On 8 as took off from were grading the June. 7, no changes we On 6 July, six:	prown stripe on the resultagen airfield. At a care and 4 tank care 3,9 and 10 July, one of the field and depart area east of the runere observed in the remotor vehicles were proton airfield.	udder assembl 8:30 p.m. on s were shunte or two MiG-15 ted. 1 In ea nway. This wo	y were parked 7 July, reilroad d onto the spur s with auxiliary rly June, German rk was stopped ations at the
	2. K1 C	at Neubra cars load track to fuel tank workers wafter 17 On 4 July field, 2 Com have been the plane	ith a vertical, bandenburg-Trolle ded with large c the field. On 8 as took off from were grading the June. 7, no changes we on 6 July, six entered the stationed at t as are II-12s is	prown stripe on the rephagen airfield. At a care and 4 tank care 3,9 and 10 July, one of the field and departs area east of the run ere observed in the remotor vehicles were partially field. The planes which source the field since mid-Me is believed to be corrected.	udder assembles: 30 p.m. on severe shunter or two MiG-15, ted. 1 In each way. This worked in the believed to have 1953. The sect as another	y were parked 7 July, railroad d onto the spur s with auxiliary rly June, German rk was stopped ations at the field and truck have been I1-12s assumption that r source reported

CLASSIFICATION SECRET,